DEFINITIONS

Affordable housing is defined as housing costing no more than 30% of a household's adjusted income.
An affordable and available home is housing which is both affordable and vacant or not occupied by a higher-income household.
Cost burden occurs when a household spends more than 30% of its income on housing costs. Severe cost burden occurs when a household spends more than 50%.
Median values are the midpoint (50th percentile) of their respective distributions, meaning half of the households earn or pay more, and half earn or pay less. Median values are used instead of averages because they are less affected by unusually high or low (outlier) numbers.
