OPPORTUNITY STARTS AT HOME (OSAH-MN)
Minnesota Chapter

OSAH-MN is a federal housing advocacy campaign, prioritizing solutions that ensure everyone can afford a place to live.

Join our campaign!

- Use your voice to influence federal housing policy priorities that prioritize racial equity and economic justice
- Learn about federal housing programs and policy and federal advocacy
- Develop relationships with Minnesota Members of Congress and their staff
- Grow collective power across systems – such as healthcare, civil rights, and economic development - to address housing affordability

In August 2022, members of OSAH-MN met with Eric Gebhart, Legislative Aid to Congressman Pete Stauber.

Our work:

Hosting special guests at our monthly meetings.
- Past guests have included Sarah Saadian, VP of Policy for NLIHC.

Building relationships with Members of Congress and their staff.
- In March of 2022, 25 housing advocates met with Senator Smith

Learning federal advocacy skills through one on one coaching, peer feedback, and webinars.

Advocating policy priorities to Minnesota Members of Congress through sign-on letters, meetings, and individual outreach.

Grant Support

OSAH-MN offers grants of $1,000 to support organizational participation in OSAH-MN. Contact us to learn more.

Monthly Meetings

OSAH-MN meets on the third Friday of the month from 10am - 11am.

CONTACT US

Join the campaign and learn more about our activities.
Elizabeth Glidden, Minnesota Housing Partnership, at elizabeth.glidden@mhponline.org https://mhponline.org/minnesota-chapter-of-opportunity-starts-at-home-osah-mn/

MINNESOTA CHAPTER OF OPPORTUNITY STARTS AT HOME